25X1A [REDACTED] approximately 200 students at the school were expected to receive three months' additional training.

2. About 30 Soviet Air Force personnel attached to the Mukden center are paid by the Bank of Northeast China in American dollars. The total for the entire group amounting to about U.S. $6,000 monthly.* Although the men are paid regularly, they must deposit their salaries in the bank, may convert it to NEPC only at the official exchange rate, and are not allowed to take the money out of Mukden with them. They can take their accumulated earnings with them when they leave Mukden permanently, but not in dollars. During their residence in Mukden, their food and lodging are paid by the Chinese Communists.

25X1A 3. [REDACTED] the T'ieh Hsi industrial area west of the Mukden railroad station, was ordered turned over to the Soviets. Factories in this sector which had been producing munitions for the Chinese Communist armies are now manufacturing airplane parts, weapons, and ammunition under the direction of one hundred fifty Soviet military technicians. In [REDACTED] large quantities of gasoline were stored outside the east gate in Mukden.
